In 2005, the Fort Worth Police Department Historical Committee was formed by Officer Tom Wiederhold, Retired Sergeant Dale Hinz, Corporal Jim Houck, and Sergeant Kevin Foster with the authorization of Chief Mendoza. In order to help bring the history of the police department to all citizens of Fort Worth, members of the Committee decided to form a private non-profit, non-political association. In April of 2006, the Fort Worth Police Historical Association was born. The Executive Board was elected for a two year term:

President	Officer Gwen Maxwell
Vice-President	Retired Ofcr. Tom Wiederhold
Secretary	Officer Maria Orand
Treasurer	Retired Rsv LT. Jim Ewing
Director	Marty Humphrey
Director	Retired Sgt. Dale Hinz
Director	Officer Mike Barber
Director	Retired Ofcr. Bo Whatley

The mission of The Fort Worth Police Historical Association (FWPHA) is to preserve the frontier and modern history of the Fort Worth Police Department and including collections of materials relating to over a century of history.

The Association accomplishes its mission in a variety of ways:

Through its programs and events for the Fort Worth Police Department and Fort Worth area school children, the Association acts as an educational resource.

Through its collections, exhibits and community outreach programs including public lecture series, the Association plays an important role in facilitating communications between the Fort Worth Police Department and the communities it serves.

The Association researches, documents and disseminates information about the FWP. It serves as an important historical and informational resource which can be utilized by a variety of local, national constituencies. In our activities, the FWPHA strives to honor all men and women who have served in one of the most prestigious Police Department in the world, the FWP, and the special place they occupy in Fort Worth's history.
